Five hundred and sixty-nine residents voted early in the June 11 Burleson City Council runoff election. Early voting ended at 7 p.m. on Tuesday. Election Day is Saturday, June 11, 7 a.m.-7 p.m., at Burleson City Hall, 141 W. Renfro St. If you are a resident of the city of Burleson, are over 18 years of age, and registered to vote, you may vote in the June 11 runoff. You can vote in the runoff even if you did not vote in the May 14 city council election.

The races on the June 11 ballot include Place 3, where incumbent Matt Powell faces challenger Jerry W. Allen. In the May 14 election, Place 3 was a three-way race. Allen garnered 44.8 percent of the vote to Powell's 38.6 percent.

The second race is Place 6, where the incumbent resigned in February, but is serving until his successor is sworn in. On May 14, Place 6 was a four-way race. Larry Pool won 44.8 percent of the vote to Jim Bailey's 32.5 percent.

Matt Powell, 46, is a land surveyor. He has lived in Texas for more than 9-1/2 years, all of which have been in Burleson.

Jerry W. Allen, 63, is a real estate investor. He is a 41-year resident of the state and a 22-year resident of Burleson.

Jim Bailey, 77, is a business owner. He has lived in Texas for 53 years and in Burleson for 51 years.

Larry Pool, 49, is employed in the insurance industry. He is a 15-year resident of the state and a two-year resident of the city.

The votes from the runoff election will be canvassed by council the week of June 13, then the winners will be sworn in at the June 20 city council meeting.
