Grab your kids Friday, April 20, and head to Bartlett Park for the City's Injury Prevention and Safe Kids Community Fair. The free event is 4 p.m.-7 p.m. at 550 N.W. Summercrest Blvd.

The fair will feature the police department, fire department, fire prevention office, parks and recreation, neighborhood services (animal shelter, environmental services and code enforcement), Cook Children's Medical Center, Texas Health Resources, Huguley Memorial Medical Center, the Safe City Commission, and more.

Attendees can get their car seats inspected, tour the Fire Safety House, register bicycles and get them inspected, participate in an art contest, initiate an identification file for your child via the police department's Child ID program, learn CPR, find out more about poison prevention, and learn the rules of the game when it comes to pet safety. Door prizes include life jackets, car seats and bicycle helmets.

Fair sponsors include the City of Burleson, Huguley Memorial Medical Center, MedStar; Safe City Commission, Spokes Bicycles and Service, Safe Kids Tarrant County (led by Cook Children's Medical Center), Texas Health Resources, Walmart, and H-E-B.

For more, call Kellye Cunningham at 817-426-9680.
