

Sally Ellertson
Public Information Officer
141 West Renfro
Burleson, Texas 76028-4261
817-426-9622
F: 817-426-9390
sellertson@burlesontx.com
www.burlesontx.com

September 23, 2015

The gunfighters are coming back. The Legends of Texas was here for the first Founders Day, 23 years ago, and they will be back in Old Town Burleson, Texas on Saturday, Oct. 10, for the Founders Day Celebration & Bluegrass Festival. The festivities are 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. with bluegrass music between 10:20 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The mock gunfights are slated for 11:20 a.m., 12:45 p.m., and 2:15 p.m., on Ellison Street, between Wilson Street and Main Street. In between shows the gunfighters will be hosting a Jail and Bail. Warrants are issued for the "culprit", and then the Marshall serves the warrant and locks 'em up in a mock jail. Bail is determined by the Legends of Texas judge so don't come out without money in your pocket!

We have something new for all of you football fans! Aaron's in Burleson is sponsoring a college football watching area, complete with multiple TVs and couches, so you can kick back and watch your favorite team play. The watching area will be set up in front of the rail cars on Ellison Street.

The daylong event kicks off at 8:30 a.m. with a walk by Burleson Heritage Foundation members. You can't miss it . . . they will be dressed in historical garb. The gunfighters join in the walk as well. The welcome is at 8:55 a.m., and then the fun begins.

More than 30 vendors have signed up already. You'll see a blacksmith at work and there will be booths featuring clothing, face painting, jewelry, motorcycle apparel, western novels, sandstone etching, skin care, purses, painted wine glasses, warmers and candles, photography sessions, crafts, and games.

Yes, we will have food! Food trucks - including barbeque, cupcakes and cookies, chicken sandwiches and deli sandwiches - will be set up in the Burleson City Hall parking lot so be sure to stop by and try something from each vendor.

The ever-popular human hamster balls from last year's Founders Day will be back. If you have never seen them, they are giant inflatable plastic balls that children and/or small adults get in, and then try to walk on water. Speaking of water, a new game this year is the Kids Jet Skis, also on water. The popular car show, sponsored by Turnkey Construction, is also back, and if you haven't gotten a flu shot yet, Texas Health Huguley Mobile Clinic will do the honors for you, for free.

Have you heard about the bluegrass bands? We have Bluefield Express, The Quibble Brothers, Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Bluegrass Band, and Walker and the Texas Dangers! This is the first year that the Founders Day Celebration has included a Bluegrass Festival.

The Bluefield Express show varies from "hard-drivin', straight ahead bluegrass to ballads, bluegrass instrumentals, gospel and some original compositions." They are first on stage, at 10:15 a.m. To preview their sound, go to <http://bluefieldexpress.com>. You can also find them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/bluefieldexpress.

The Quibble Brothers "are not just a hot Dallas country music band, bluegrass band, and for that matter a swing band . . . they are all that!" They are second on stage, at 11:30 a.m. To preview their sound, go to www.quibblebrothers.com. You can also find them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/QuibbleBrothers.

Hot Sounds of Summer concert fans will remember Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Bluegrass Band from the 2014 concert series. The band will be back at 1 p.m. on Oct. 10, on that same stage. Sgt. Pepper touts itself as "A Bluegrass Band that plays mostly Beatle songs." To preview their sound, go to <http://sgtpeppersLBB.com/>. You can also find them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/sgtpeppersLBB.

Walker and the Texas Dangers, a "(square) dance band," will close out the bluegrass sounds with their concert at 2:30 p.m. According to the band's website, they "sling a lively concoction—gritty stories told with slapped up treatment." To preview their sound, go to www.texasdangers.com. You can also find them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Walker-and-the-Texas-Dangers/170328739658867>.

Admission to the Founders Day Celebration & Bluegrass Festival is free, but some of the vendors may charge a fee. Keep your eyes open for the strolling minstrels, fiddle players and more. The Founders Day & the Bluegrass Festival is hosted by the City of Burleson and the Burleson Heritage Foundation.