Mayor Ken Shetter presented the 'State of the City' at the Burleson Area Greater Chamber of Commerce's Winter Quarterly Meeting, Thur. Jan. 18.

Mayor Shetter highlighted the city's growing economy along with public safety upgrades and improvements. He also discussed the council's dedication to bringing expand higher education facilities in our community while continuing to provide our residents and visitors with great places to shop, eat and recreate.

He discussed the capital improvement projects that will be commencing in 2018, which includes:

- Old Town railroad crossing quiet zones
- Renfro Street improvements from 174 to Alsbury and Johnson to I-35
- Widening of McAlister
- Neighborhood street rehab projects
- Improvements to McNairn at 174
- Irene and Gardens to Johnson safe pedestrian routes project and,
- The extension of Lakewood to County Road 1021.

"I hope you share my belief that there's never been a better time to be part of the Burleson community," said Mayor Shetter. "While we face the challenges any growing community faces, we are in a great position to build on our success and be an even better place to live, learn, work and play."
