Katherine Reading Appointed to Serve on National League of Cities’ Financial Administration Intergovernmental Relations Committee.

Burleson, TX — 01/19/2021 — Katherine Reading, Council Member Place 3, Burleson, Texas, has been appointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2021 (F.A.I.R and Women in Municipal Government) Federal Advocacy Committee. Council Member, Reading was elected to a one-year term and will provide strategic direction and guidance for NLC’s federal advocacy agenda and policy priorities. The appointment was announced by NLC President Kathy Maness, councilmember, Lexington, South Carolina.

“It is an honor to be appointed to work with leaders across the country. We come to the table as leaders to have open discourse and respectful debate about the challenges that face our communities. We share different ideologies and yet work across the aisle placing aside partisan politics to create meaningful policy and advocate for our communities. I am deeply humbled and honored to serve, and I look forward to getting to work!

Respectfully,
Katherine Reading
CP3”

As a committee member, Reading will play a key role among a diverse group of local leaders in shaping NLC’s policy positions and advocating on behalf of America’s cities and towns before Congress, with the administration and at home.

“Our federal advocacy committees are the voices of what’s happening on the ground in our communities,” said Kathy Maness, councilmember of Lexington, South Carolina, and President of the National League of Cities (NLC). “I am proud to have Katherine Reading join NLC’s 2021 committee on behalf of her residents. Together with a team of local leaders from around the country, we will work to solve the most pressing challenges facing our communities.”

This year’s F.A.I.R Committee leadership team consists of Chair Mark Douglas, Commissioner, Sunrise, FL; Vice Chair Victoria Farrar-Myers, Mayor Pro Tem, Arlington, TX; and Vice Chair Matt Orlando, Councilmember, Chandler, AZ.
