Support Library programs by becoming a Friend of the Burleson Library

This all-volunteer organization promotes and supports the Burleson Public Library as an active center for lifelong learning and reading in our community. Friends serve as advocates for the library among the community and local government. Our Friends group always welcomes new members who wish to donate funds and/or volunteer their time. The Friends of the Burleson Public Library received its 501 (c)(3) designation in 1989.

WHAT WE DO...

Programs and Financial Support

By supporting the Summer Reading programs and other library programs throughout the year.

Advocacy and Awareness

By encouraging people to use the library, Communicating the value that the library adds to the community, Working with other organizations, and being a member of the Burleson Area Chamber of Commerce.

Volunteer Opportunities

By volunteering for our ongoing book sale, Library & City events, and helping with special projects throughout the year.

Fundraising

By conducting ongoing book sales, other fundraising activities, and encouraging donations throughout the year.

Friends of the Library at The Craft Fair

Benefits of membership:

- Advance notice of special events.
- Rewarding opportunities to support the library as a volunteer or advocate.
- Opportunities to associate with other enthusiastic library supporters.

As a Friends of the Library member, you will be paid back in many ways during the year, with the smiles of children, the sincere appreciation of library staff and the satisfaction of knowing you make a difference.
